

Kenny and Zuke's Secret Menu

(No substitutions!)

Okay...You've heard the rumors - These items are not so much secret as things that our staff like to throw together, or that customers often ask for. We thought we'd finally compile them into an off-the-menu list which, I guess, becomes a menu. And since we don't really give out this list at the Deli and you have to know about it from looking on our site, or someone else's site or blog, I guess that qualifies it as secret. Sort of....Ken
